

Workshop on

Guidelines and good practices on quantitative assessments of research

Paris, May 12, 2014

Organised by OST with CWTS, OST-UQAM, SPRU, NIFU, KU Leuven, INGENIO and OcyT

Final programme

09 h 00 - 09 h 30 Registration

09 h 30 - 09 h 45 Opening remarks
Ghislaine Filliatreau, Ismael Rafols

09 h 45 - 11 h 00 Session 1:

Paul Wouters: The debate on uses and consequences of STI indicators

Frank Miedema: Science in Transition: aims, incentives, the reward system and where it went wrong

11 h 00 - 11 h 15: Coffee break at Méditel

11 h 15 - 13 h 00 Session 2:

Jack Spaapen: The development of a standard evaluation protocol and the dilemmas that go with it

Yves Gingras: Effects of indicators at the system level

13 h 00 - 14 h 15: Lunch at OST

14 h 15 - 15 h 15 Round table

Speakers: Jonathan Adams, Michèle Garfinkel, Laurel Haak, Fred Steward
Chairwoman: Sarah de Rijcke

What should be the content of the guidelines on the use of quantitative assessments?

15 h 15 - 16 h 00 Group discussion (representing parties)

- What should be on the guidelines? What would you want?
- How can the different parties/communities be engaged?

16 h 00 - 16 h 45 Conclusion : Starting a lasting process. Deadline for guidelines release.
Chairman: Paul Wouters

17 h 00 Workshop closing